

This is a series of specially designed smart street lamps with special functions. It offers a street lamp mounted on a special pole with extra functionality.

This is a modular concept with many options that is assembled on demand. Poles adds many features that are very useable in a modern city environment. One is a charger for electric cars and one other is a display for advertising.

